The address of the debtors’ corporate headquarters is 4900 E. DublinGranville Road, Columbus, OH 43081.

2. The statutory predicates for the relief requested in this Motion are 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 365(d)(3), and 503(b)(1).

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

3. Section 365(d)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code requires a debtor-in-possession to pay timely all post-petition rent and related charges until an unexpired lease is rejected. See 11 U.S.C. § 365(d)(3) (“[t]he trustee shall timely perform all the obligations of the debtor . . . arising from and after the order for relief under any unexpired lease of non-residential real property, until such leases is assumed or rejected, notwithstanding section 503(b)(1) of this title”).

4. Further, as this Court explained in In re Sportsman’s Warehouse, Inc., the “debtor’s use and occupancy of leased premises post-petition is an actual and necessary expense of preserving the estate” giving rise to an administrative expense under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code to the extent of “the actual value or benefit the debtor is receiving.” 436 B.R. 308, 315 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009). The rent payable to a landlord is “presumed to be the contract rate of rent” and the landlord is also entitled to real-estate taxes, payable as administrative expenses. In re Goody’s Family Clothing, Inc., 443 B.R. 5, 20 (Bankr. D. Del. 2010); see also In re Goody’s Family Clothing, Inc., 610 F.3d 812, 818 (3d Cir. 2010) (“When third parties are induced to supply goods or services to the debtor-in-possession . . . the purposes of [Section 503] plainly require that their claims be afforded priority.”).

BACKGROUND FACTS AND RELIEF REQUESTED

5. BDPM Group, LLC is the owner of the premises located at 3550 U.S. Hwy 31 South, Pelham, County of Shelby, Alabama (the “Premises”), at which Big Lots Stores, Inc. (the “Debtor”) operates store number 1057 (“Store 1057”) at the Premises pursuant to that certain written lease of nonresidential real property between Keystone Plaza, LLC and Big Lots Store,

Inc., dated June 29, 2005 (as amended) (the “Lease”)<sup>3</sup>. The Lease has not been assumed or rejected, and the Debtor remains in possession of the Premises and continues to enjoy its full use and occupation.

6. Pursuant to the Lease, the Debtor is obligated to pay BDPM base rent per month, plus common area maintenance, taxes and insurance charges. Under the Lease, rent is due and payable the first of every month, common area maintenance charges and real estate taxes are due thirty days after demand for payment, and insurance charges are due on or before February 15 of the applicable lease year.

7. Following, the filing of the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases on September 9, 2024 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtors did not pay post-petition rent, taxes, and other charges for September 2024. For the period of September 9 through September 30, 2024, BDPM is entitled to no less than $7,033.65 (the “Stub Rent Amount”).

8. BDPM, through its property manager, BDPM Group, LLC, has also invoiced the Debtors for their share of the outstanding common area maintenance charges of $20,994.03, and real-estate taxes of $24,495.78, which will become due January 22, 2025.

9. The Court should enter an order compelling immediate payment by Debtors to BDPM of the Stub Rent Amount pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 365(d)(3), and 503(b)(1)(A).

ARGUMENT

10. Allowance and payment of an administrative expense claim under section 503(b) is appropriate as the Debtors’ use and occupancy of the property is a necessary expense of preserving the estate. The Debtors’ use and occupancy of the property after the Petition Date is manifest. The Debtors continue to use and occupy the premises to the exclusion of BDPM. Moreover, as the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit has indicated: “The mere fact that the Debtors are occupying the Landlords’ premises is sufficient, in and of itself, to establish that payment for that use and occupancy is an actual, necessary expense of preserving the Debtors’ estates under section 503(b)(1).” Zagata Fabricators, Inc. v. Superior Air Products, 893 F.2d 624, 627 (3d Cir. 1990). Accordingly, BDPM is entitled to be paid the September Stub-Rent, in the amount of $7,033.65, as an administrative expense claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1).

<sup>3</sup> The original 1995 lease was between Walmart and Consolidated Stores Corporation (former name for Debtors), but through a series of sales and assignment/assumptions Keystone Plaza, LLC became owners of the premise and retained interest as landlord under the sublease agreements. Keystone Plaza, LLC, amended and extended the Lease on August 14, 2019, through January 31, 2026. Subsequently, Keystone Plaza, LLC sold the property to BDPM Group LLC.

11. BDPM is also entitled to immediate payment of all post-petition rent and additional rent obligations as they come due under the Lease pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §365(d)(3). For example, Debtor has been billed for its proportionate share of 2024 common area maintenance charges and 2024 real estate taxes. Pursuant to the terms of the Lease, the Debtor is obligated to pay those amounts, in full, to BDPM within 30 days of being billed. BDPM, presented all bills for the 2024 common area maintenance charges and 2024 real estate taxes to the Debtor on December 23, 2024. Payment of those amounts are due within 30 days, but the Debtor has neither indicated its willingness to pay the billed amounts nor contested the amount billed.

12. Moreover, BDPM requests an order compelling the Debtor timely pay all future obligations arising under the Lease as and when they come due.

13. Nothing in the Bankruptcy Code suggests that the Debtors can pick and choose among their administrative expenses, paying some (like attorneys’ fees) in full and others (like stub rent payable to landlords) in part, or not at all.

14. In addition, BDPM is entitled to adequate protection under 11 U.S.C. §§ 361 and 363(e) due to the Debtors’ continuing use of the Premise.

15. BDPM joins in the arguments of other landlords also seeking to compel immediate payment of post-petition stub-rent to the extent not inconsistent herewith.

16. BDPM requests that the Court direct the Debtors to make immediate payment of stub rent to BDPM for the month of September. The Debtor should also be compelled to timely pay all outstanding amounts that are due for the 2024 common area maintenance charges and 2024 real estate taxes, and all future amounts that come due under the Lease. Failing that, the Court should prohibit the Debtors from paying any administrative expenses incurred by or with respect to any person, including the Debtors' professionals, unless the Debtors can adequately assure the Court that they are not, and will not become, administratively insolvent.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

17. BDPM reserves its right to further amend, modify, or supplement this Motion, including, without limitation, adding any obligations that accrue, arise, or are related to the pre-assumption period that subsequently become known to BDPM or that become defaulted with the passage of time. BDPM further reserves its rights to raise any additional objections to assumption of the Lease, including the ability of any proposed assignee to perform and to provide the necessary adequate assurance information. BDPM expressly reserves all rights and remedies at law or in equity against the Debtors and nothing contained herein is intended to or should be construed to limit BDPM's rights, remedies, or interests with respect to the Lease.

WHEREFORE, BDPM respectfully requests that the Court grant this Motion and enter the attached Order and grant such other and further relief that the Court deems just and proper.
